

Tips for Visiting Northeastern University's Archives and Special Collections

The Northeastern University Archives and Special Collections is open Monday through Friday from 8:30am to 5:00pm. We are located in Room 92 in the Basement of Snell Library.

Find detailed descriptions of our collections by visiting our finding aid catalog: <https://archivesspace.library.northeastern.edu/>

Locate digitized collections from around the world by visiting:

The Digital Library for International Research: <http://www.dlir.org>

Digital Bodleian: <https://digital.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/>

Digital Public Library of America: <https://dp.la>

Global Digital Archives: <http://globaldigitalarchives.wordpress.com>

Find archival collections (both digitized and not) around the world, using ArchivesGrid: <https://researchworks.oclc.org/archivegrid/>

Don't hesitate to contact us with any questions or concerns.

Phone: 617-373-2351

Email: archives@northeastern.edu

Northeastern University Archives and Special Collections
Introductory Class Session questions

Collections used in class:

Michael S. Dukakis Presidential Campaign records

The Boston Globe Library Collection records

Travelers' Aid Family Services of Boston records

Please note the collection number, box, and folder titles that you are working with.

What type of material are you working with? What is unique about it?

What sort of information is the material type you are working with providing? Whose voices are present? Whose voices are absent?

How would you incorporate the information in a research project or paper? What other types of sources would you want to explore in addition to these sources?